

ANNOUNCING OUR SY 2023-2024

WOMEN IN SCHOOL LEADERSHIP BOOKCLUB

Superintendents are turning over more often, and women continue to be underrepresented in the top district spot, according to new research from education strategy and policy firm ILO Group. This newest research is an update to ILO Group's previous analyses on gender equity gaps and gender pay gaps in educational leadership. The firm said understanding turnover trends and inequities in hiring practices can help reveal solutions to reverse these patterns.

We invite principals to join our Women in School Leadership Book Club SY 2023-2024.

We are able to offer this opportunity at minimal cost, thanks to the support of the Rhode Island Department of Education and the Rhode Island Foundation. This program is open to all RI educators.

#1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • Brené Brown has taught us what it means to dare greatly, rise strong, and brave the wilderness. Now, based on new research conducted with leaders, change makers, and culture shifters, she's showing us how to put those ideas into practice so we can step up and lead.

Next up...She Leads! We will raffle off a few copies at our gathering!
